Mike Tomlin Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

In his first 10 seasons, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. His 103-57 regular-season record (.644) is the best start in franchise history, and he reached 100 career wins in the fewest games (157) in team history. Tomlin became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons. His 103 regular-season wins are tied for the fourth-most wins by an NFL head coach in their first 10 seasons as a head coach.

Tomlin also became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (26 years, 323 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

Over the past four seasons (2013-16), Tomlin has led the team to a 16-2 record in the month of December/January, which are the most wins in December/January over that span.

In his 10 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to five AFC North titles, most recently in 2016, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs seven times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first 10 years, including six at Heinz Field in 2016.

Tomlin has sent a total of 41 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including the five players that received Pro Bowl honors for the 2016 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin also participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models. In addition, he serves on the board of directors of the Extra Mile Education Foundation, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

The Steelers finished with an 11-5 record in 2016, and won each of the team's final seven regular-season games, to secure the AFC North title and No. 3 seed in the AFC for the postseason. It marked the fifth time Tomlin has led the Steelers to at least 11 wins in the regular season. Pittsburgh won its first two postseason games, vs. Miami in the AFC Wild Card Game and at Kansas City in the AFC Divisional Playoff, before falling to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship Game.

Running back Le'Veon Bell was voted Steelers' MVP for his 2016 efforts. He led the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (157.0), and he became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,500 receiving yards in his career (38 games). In the Steelers' Week 14 victory at Buffalo, Bell set the single-game team record with 236 rushing yards and tied the single-game team mark with three rushing touchdowns.

Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger and wide receiver Antonio Brown continued to etch their names in NFL history. Roethlisberger currently has the ninth-most passing touchdowns in NFL history (301) and the 10th-most passing yards in NFL history (46,814). Brown set numerous NFL records, including one for the most receptions in a player's first 100 career regular-season games (622) and one for the most receptions in NFL history by a player in any four-year span (481).

Despite significant injuries to multiple starters during the 2015 season, the Steelers finished with a 10-6 record (2nd in the AFC North) and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs. The Steelers finished third in the NFL in total offense (1st in the AFC), while the defense posted 48 sacks under first-year defensive coordinator Keith Butler. The 48 sacks were the third-most in the NFL in 2015.

In 2014, Tomlin, who has a defensive coaching background, orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards/game (301.6) and total first downs (379). On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided Roethlisberger, Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell – whom all made the Pro Bowl – to record-setting years.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may possibly have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin Press Conference
January 24, 2017

Opening Statement: Good afternoon. As we sit here today, it's normal, end of the year business for us. I think, probably first and foremost, is processing the information and the disappointment associated with being out of the tournament. Obviously there is disappointment associated with that. There is assessing associated with that. We will have sufficient time in terms of doing that, as we get into the offseason. In the midst of that disappointment, there is some great opportunity to gather information and to start the process that is the beginnings of 2017. That is what a lot of the end of the year business is about for us. It wraps a bow around what is 2016, but largely it sets a trajectory and provides black and white information for us, as we lay the foundation for 2017. That starts with me, first and foremost, visiting with players. I started that process this morning at 9 a.m. I met with the team, collectively, yesterday afternoon. But I have started individual exit meetings this morning. That is very much a necessary part of business and assessing what happened, and like I said, it's setting a trajectory for 2017. I will do similar things with coaches, after I finish with players. I will start the process of mapping out a calendar for us, in terms of the myriad of things that we have to do. But before I do that, I just wanted to express appreciation for efforts being given in 2016. Players and coaches, I think that goes without saying. We have a lot of people that are significant contributors to our efforts and are very much a part of our operations and are very helpful, very much a part of the success that we have. Our medical staff, trainers, doctors and personnel. I appreciate their efforts. Our equipment staff and grounds crew. They are significant contributors to the things that go on around here. Just in general, the support people, cafeteria staff and workers. Everybody brings a can-do attitude to our operations. They are positive contributors to our efforts, and are very much a part of the formula that is the product that you see. Our scouting department, same thing, not only in terms of the formation of bringing the necessary bodies together, but even as we were heading down the road, they transitioned and were very helpful in terms of the guys preparing week in and week out, as they provided information. It has been significant. It has been a significant development in terms of the relationship there between scouting and the football side, as we put together game plans and helped guys with their overall readiness. I would like to thank you guys for chronicling our journey and for taking our story to our fans. It is important. I respect and appreciate the work that it is you do. And I understand how vital it is in terms of us having a great relationship with our fans. As we move forward to planning the things that are going to transpire or started the process of transpiring, we are going to analyze schematically, everything that we have done in all three phases in 2016, cutups and so forth, game tape, as a staff. We are going to analyze the people that we are doing it with, the division of labor within the group, the group itself. All of those are very necessary parts at this time of year. We will be multi-tasking as we do those things. We will be laying a foundation for draft preparation and free agency. You know our philosophical approach to those things. The draft is a vital part to our team development. It is our lifeline in a lot of ways. We believe in recruiting our own in terms of free agency, first and foremost. We have some significant potential guys there. I am sure we will assess those things and prioritize those things. I am not saying that we won't play the field, but we always recruit our own, first and foremost. Our philosophical approach won't change there. I have some calendar things to lay out, OTAs, phase one of the offseason program, so forth, and get that information out to our guys, how to best utilize this offseason calendar to put us in the very best position that we can be in heading into Latrobe. We have some medical issues that are being addressed with our current players, exit physicals and so forth, are very much a part of the offseason, particularly the start of the offseason, if you are looking at any medical things that need to transpire. We want to do so in a swift manner, to take advantage of this thing that we have in front of us right now, which is time. All of those things and others are just getting started. Such is life this time of year. We always want to be in the hunt. We were in the hunt this year. We are not "the" team. We understand and accept that. But it won't change our mentality or our spirit as we push forward towards 2017. The goals and the aspirations won't change whatsoever. Some of the people will. That's just the nature of our business. Some of the division of labor will. That's just the nature of our business. But in spirit, we will approach it in the same.

Re: Last year getting to the Divisional Round and now getting to the AFC Championship and if that means you are closer:
I do because we were. But again, I never look at it in a cumulative-like manner. I didn't use 2016 as a continuation of 2015. I won't use 2017 as a continuation of 2016. All that being said, I know that we have the makings of a really good football, the makings of a world championship-caliber football team. We want to respect the process that is team development. But at the same time, utilize the experiences that we have had, for information in that development. That's where there is carryover. We know more about guys over the course of this journey that we didn't know about at the start of this journey. We will utilize that knowledge as we forecast the potential division of labor. But also, things that we need to add or subtract from a personnel standpoint. Those are the things that I think we envision, in terms of utilizing what has transpired to us, in an effort to build for 2017, not to view 2017 as a continuation. I am not going to assume areas of strengths in 2016 will be in 2017, and weaknesses by the same token. We are going to start anew. But we start anew with knowledge gained because of the experiences shared.

Re: Le'Veon Bell said he knew about his groin injury before Sunday's game and if you knew:
I am aware of that. He was doing a great job of managing it. It didn't cause him to miss any practice time, let alone game time. It was just something to manage. I think when you look at the journey that is the season, I think that just about every guy down there is dealing with and managing something in an effort to stay on the grass. I was aware of it. But it wasn't significant to the point where it affected planning or the anticipation of planning in any way. It was unfortunate that it became an issue in-game. But it wasn't something that was on our radar from that perspective.

Re: Not putting Bell's injury on the injury report:
Like I said, just about every guy down there that is playing, particularly those that are playing the amount of snaps that he plays, has something. You would be putting 46 men on the injury report if that was the tipping point.

Re: Ben Roethlisberger said today he is not sure he will be back in 2017:
You said it. He said it. So you do take it seriously. I think that's a fair assessment in terms of where he is in his career. I am not alarmed by it. I just think that's football. Obviously I am hopeful that he returns. His return, obviously, or potential for his return or not returning, will weigh heavily on our planning. But I am not alarmed or surprised by that thought process. That's life. He is a significant component. The most significant component of what it is that we do. We will plan and react accordingly.

Have you met with Ben yet?
We haven't met yet. Generally, our plan is that he is one of the last, if not the last players that I meet with.

Re: James Harrison said he isn't done yet:
I am open to having him back. I think we are all not surprised by what he was able to do, because he is James. But we were pleased with what he was able to do and provide us with. We are open to that discussion for sure.

Re: If Antonio Brown wasn't happy early on in the game:
Not to my knowledge.

Re: The season ending with A.B. and if he needs to work on things:
We all need to get better in all areas. I am going to continue to challenge him in the ways that I have challenged him over the course of his career, to continue to find new ways to be an impact player for us, to continue to grow within the role that is his on this team. He is a dynamic player. There are responsibilities that come with being a dynamic player. I am going to ask him to continue to grow in those areas, but that's not in response to anything that transpired over the course of the season, or even at the end of the season. That's normal operating business for all returning players. I think it's important that they have great clarity about not only what their roles are, formally, but what the responsibility, the informal responsibilities are associated with those ever-growing and ever-changing roles. Our conversations will be no different than they have been in regards to those things. But the same can be said about all of the players.

Re: Handling your starting quarterback saying the team was outcoached and not ready:
I don't know that to be a true assessment or his words. Obviously I am going to meet with him directly, like I meet with all players, and proceed accordingly based on our visit.

Re: Defensive scheme against New England and what happened:
It depends on what specific plays you are talking about. At times, we didn't execute as well as we would have liked. At times, they executed extremely well. If you paint with a broad brush, I would say it is a combination of both. But I would have to look at specific plays in terms of identifying what it was in each specific instance. Rest assured, it wasn't a grade-A performance from us. There were some breakdowns. But there was some quality execution by them. I would be less than genuine if I didn't acknowledge that as well.

Re: Second-guessing your game plan this past game or other games:
I think we second-guess ourselves regardless of outcome. That's just part of trying to be as good as you can be, as competitive as you can be, to be as tough to beat as you can be. We don't wait for the result of performances to comb through it and to analyze it in that way. Yes, we do. But we also did after the Kansas City and Miami games as well. So it's just a part of normal operation procedure, if you want to be as good as you can be.

Re: Adjustments at halftime on defense:
I don't know if it was any more significant than what we do in just about any other halftime. We make the necessary adjustments that we believe that will increase our chances of winning and put us in better position to perform, relative to what transpired in the first half. From that standpoint, it was no different than any other halftime adjustment, not necessarily the results that we had hoped for, but the processes were very similar.

Re: Ben mentioning mistakes made, including by himself and Coach Haley:
Ben has been doing it a long time. He doesn't do it to be mean spirited. He is just trying to be transparent and tell the truth. I think any of us that were in that stadium and on that sideline understand that they performed at a higher level than we did. And it doesn't occur in a vacuum. It's not just playing. It's not just coaching. It's a combination of both. Together we eat, is a phrase that I often use in regards to the group. That applies to both players and coaches. That's life in this business. That's always the case. It always has been the case and always will be the case. When we perform well, it's because we planned well and guys have executed well. When we don't perform well, it's because we've lacked something in planning and performance.

Re: Expecting to have Martavis Bryant back:
I don't know what to expect. I know that he is probably going through a reinstatement process soon, if he hasn't started it already. A lot of those things have nothing to do with me. I am kind of in the wait and see mode, like a lot of you guys are in some of the processes that have to occur, in terms of him getting reinstated. Obviously I am hopeful for that reinstatement, but I am in a wait and see mentality, because a lot of those things are outside our control.

Re: Facing the Patriots next season and how you will plan for them:
We will cross that bridge when we come to it. A lot of the things that we do relative to any game plan is based on the people that we have at our disposal, and their potential strengths and weaknesses. So, to forecast what we are going to do when we play them next year is unrealistic as I sit here today, because I don't know what the pieces are. When I am talking about the pieces, I am talking about our pieces.

Re: On if New England was stacked against a quarterback sneak when the offense had the ball with less than a yard to go:
They were.

Re: On if Roethlisberger has the freedom to run a quarterback sneak:
We're capable of that by game plan, certainly. Yes.

Re: On what he learned about Cobi Hamilton and Sammie Coates in the AFC Championship Game:
They had their moments for us, positively and negatively. Both [are] young guys. Both guys ascended thought out the ranks throughout the course of the season. Some of it by virtue of their work. Some of it by virtue of things that happened around them, injuries to others and so forth. Man, I appreciate their contributions. Those guys have to continue to grow, get better and find a more consistent level of performance. But that's the same for all young guys. I'm appreciative of the ground that they covered. But at the same time, I'm going to challenge those guys to continue to grow. And I think it's reasonable to expect that to occur.

Re: On if it's his understanding that he didn't need to list Bell on the injury report:
That is my understanding, for the same reasons that I outlined when asked over there. Just about everybody in that locker room has things they're managing in an effort to stay on the field. To my estimation, he was managing it extremely well. It didn't cause him to miss any practice reps, so I didn't list it. But I can go down a myriad of other people that have similar things they were working to manage.

Re: On if Fitzgerald Toussaint was active last week because of depth concern at running back:
No. Fitz was up because Fitz is up when healthy. Fitz wasn't healthy the week before. So he wasn't down. It didn't have anything to do with Demarcus Ayers or the potential injury to Le'Veon Bell. Fitz has been a viable asset to us as a backup runner and core special teamer. If healthy, he was going to play. And he did.

Re: On if Bell's excusal from practice last week had anything to do with his injury, and if there's anything more he can say about that excusal:
I could tell you, but it's not my business to tell. He was relieved for personal reasons, not injury related. I told you that last week, and that remains to be true. Whether or not he chooses to reveal that reason is totally up to him and not my business.

Re: On his challenge last week:
I did have a clear view of it. The only question I had was did we have clear recovery. Obviously, clear recovery is an element of whether or not you want to challenge it. I felt good enough about the clear recovery. So I thought the challenge was going to be whether or not the ball was out. They didn't deem they had enough sufficient evidence to change the call on the field. It disagreed with my perspective. Sometimes that happens.

Continued:
They told me there wasn't enough information on the video to change the call on the field.

Re: On if there is a top priority for who or what he wants to add to his team this offseason:
I'm just still in the assessing phase, and the visiting phase, in terms of closing out 2016 business. I think I'm a few days away from setting a trajectory for 2017 with that type of detail.

Re: On what players will need corrective surgery this offseason:
I don't know that. That's just part of the medical exits. Again, like I said, guys deal with a myriad of things over the course of the season, most of which don't prevent them from participating. A lot of it is cleaned up after, and that's the mentality. So we'll see where that takes us.

Re: On how assessment this time of year is incorporated week-to-week, but also in the broader picture:
Man, I think it's continual. It really is. The information that you gather, the assessment of that information, it lays the foundation for 2017. And really, it's a part of, generally, every discussion from a framework standpoint as you move forward.

Re: On what went into the decision to dress Coates over Ayers last week:
He's a more viable special teams player: he's a kickoff return guy, he's a gunner corner [and] he's a kickoff coverage guy. He just does more things and adds more value in a helmet to us.

Re: On if he had confidence Coates could catch last week:
Yes. He caught others in game.

Re: On if the defense having difficulties getting calls was a communication issue, and if not, what the contingency plan is when the opposing offense is moving so quickly in the no-huddle:
We have contingency. We just didn't do a great job of executing it as well as we would've liked.

Re: On the Senior Bowl:
I won't [go]. I'm going to be doing exit interviews. We'll have staff and personnel on site, certainly.

Re: On if he expects his staff back intact:
I understand that change is a part of this thing. It always is. Particularly, for players and coaches. I'm not going to burry my head in the sand in that regard. We'll see where it transpires.

Re: On why he went with a conservative approach to combating Tom Brady:
You know, I base our matchups on what our people are capable of doing and doing well. You said it at the start of you question, the personnel was different [than 2011].

Re: On if he has long-term concerns about Ladarius Green:
I don't have an assessment, long term, of where he is. I think that's one of the chief medical decisions and questions that we have to have moving forward, in terms of guys getting an assessment of their overall health and what it means for 2017.

Re: On reports that Antonio Brown was making six-figure money for his Facebook Live posts:
I don't have information in that regard. So I have no reaction.

Re: On if Sean Davis was off the field injured on Chris Hogan's touchdown catch:
He had been dealing with shoulder injuries over the course of playoffs. It was something that happened in play, prior, that required him to leave the field. I don't know if it was a shoulder, specifically, or something else that occurred in game. But it was definitely something that occurred from a medical standpoint in game.

Re: On if the process of replacing a franchise quarterback is more complicated than other positions:
I don't know that it's any more complex than any of those other decisions. But obviously, the potential for it is extremely significant, because of the position.

Re: On how he reacts to comments that he was outcoached last week:
It doesn't [affect me], because I'm not overly guarded or highly sensitive. I just want to win. I want to do what's required to win. I don't care who gets the credit. I understand blame is sometimes associated with not being successful. I don't waste a lot of time thinking about that, because I don't plan to be unsuccessful. Sometimes we are. And I absorb the negativity that comes with it. I think that's an element of the job.

Re: On how much weight the loss in the AFC Championship Game has on the offseason planning:
I think it's both. I think you look at the big picture, in terms of where we are and where it is we need to be to be World Champs. And obviously, you place an extra amount of weight on that game because of the significance of that game and how close it is to where we want to be.

Re: On if he can say what he saw in Karlos Williams:
I really can't, because there really wasn't a lot of evaluation opportunity there. I think in signing him, we're saying we're interested in seeing what he's capable of, not that we have an assessment of what he's capable of. Any of these guys that come aboard during the course of this journey, particularly the guys as we're well into the season and we're not practicing in pads, and so forth, to say that we have an assessment of what they're capable of is not accurate. Suffice it to say that if we sign any of those guys to futures, it's because we're potentially interested in what they might be, and we might not have a real assessment of what they're capable of being.

Re: On how he works with players who have been suspended:
It has no bearing on how I work with them. What he's allowed to do and available to do, we do. What he's not, due to the circumstances of the suspension, we won't. It really is just that simple.

Re: On Bud Dupree:
I think the overall trajectory in his play is an upward one. Man, he's a talented young guy. It's unfortunate he had to deal with injury of the course of the front part of the season. I like the way he came off it. I'm excited as we move forward, in terms of him being a core contributor to us and the things we ask him to do.

Re: On if he has an indication of whether DeAngelo Williams will return:
I have an indication of that. But again, none of those decisions occur in a vacuum. Free agency is what it is. It's free for him, it's free for us. We'll asses it and see if the two sides can come together and do business again. I know it was a pleasant experience, the two years that he's been a part of this.

Re: On if his indication is that Williams wants to continue to play:
He'll be better to speak for himself, in that regard, than myself.

Re: On Roethlisberger questioning how much contact the team has in practice and if that's something he'll look at in the offseason:
That's something that I always look at. Not because he said it. Just because it's part of the process of assessing what transpired in 2016, and determining what's important for us in terms of team development in 2017. This 2017 group will be a different group than the 2016 group. Although, a lot of the people, particularly the significant contributors, will be the same. It's my job to provide this group what it is I feel they need in order to be prepared, and will do so.

Re: On how much attention he pays to players questioning game plans and so forth:
You know, these guys know I have an open-door policy, that opinions are good, that we don't care where good ideas come from and I lead the charge in that regard. I'll ask those guys to not be overly sensitive, to be thick-skinned in an effort to pursue what it is we're pursuing. I'm given an opportunity to display that at times, and I do. And that won't change.

Re: On if he's looking at the draft and free agency with the expectation that Martavis Bryant will be back:
I don't. I don't look at it with that in mind at all, positively or negatively. It's our job to assess the talent that's out there and plan accordingly, be it draft or free agency, and not necessarily put it into any specific cookie cutter based on who may be available to us and who may not be available to us.

Re: On if this is the first time he's heard Roethlisberger mention that he might not come back for a season:
No.

It's not the first time?
No.

Re: On how he looks at 2016:
My goal was to be World Champs. And we weren't that. So you can describe it in whatever way you choose to. In that vein, I've only been successful one time in 10 years. And I'm OK with that. I'm not looking to feel good. I'm not. I'm not looking to pat myself on the back, I don't think any of us are. I think it's our desire to be World Champs, and it's not us this year. There are consequences for not being that. There's an assessing that comes with not being that. No different than any other year when we haven't won it. All of that being said, because we want to increase our chances of being that group next year.

Re: On Alejandro Villanueva:
I thought he grew by leaps and bounds, not that I'm surprised by it. He's a sharp guy. He's a tough, diligent and prepared worker. I think it's reasonable to expect his play to continue to be on the rise as he gets more snaps, experience and exposure.

Re: On what area his team needs to improve the most in next year:
I don't have the answer to that as I sit here right now. That's part of what it is we're doing here, in terms of the reviewing and assessing.

Re: On self-assessment:
I think that's probably one of the last things I do in terms of moving forward, because I think it's important and to gather as much information as I can gather relative to the perspective of those that I work with.

Re: On if he expects to have Senquez Golson back and healthy next year:
I expect to. We'll see if that transpires.

Re: On if Roethlisberger mentioned doubts about returning to football to him in the past:
Yes.

Re: On if he expects Roethlisberger to return:
He and I haven't visited officially yet, and I'll have a better assessment of that when we do. Until I do, it's just speculation, and I chose not to.

MISC. STEELERS POSTSEASON NOTES

- In 2005, the Steelers became the first No. 6 seed in NFL history to win the Super Bowl. Since then two other Wild Card teams have gone on to win the Super Bowl ('10 Green Bay, sixth seed and '07 Giants, fifth seed).
- Pittsburgh has played in 60 playoff games, which is second all-time behind Dallas (61).
- The Steelers have won 12 of their last 18 postseason games.
- Pittsburgh is 8-4 all-time in the postseason at Heinz Field since the stadium opened in 2001, including winning five of their previous six.
- The Steelers won the AFC Central title a team-record six consecutive seasons from 1974-79. They also won four consecutive division titles from 1994-97.
- The Steelers won a team-record seven consecutive postseason games, including two Super Bowls (IX and X), from Dec. 22, 1974 through Dec. 19, 1976. They won six consecutive postseason games from Dec. 30, 1978 through Jan. 20, 1980, including victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.
- The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.
- The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, on Jan. 7, 1979. The Steelers allowed a team-high 45 points during a 45-28 AFC Championship Game road loss to the Miami Dolphins on Jan. 6, 1985.
- Pittsburgh has faced 22 different teams in the postseason and has a winning record against 12 of those opponents. The Steelers have split their postseason contests with three teams and have a losing record versus seven teams.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1947 NFL Divisional Game
Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl
Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7
December 23, 1972
(50,350)

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

December 22, 1973

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 32, Buffalo 14
December 22, 1974
(48,321)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

1974 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 24, Oakland 13
December 29, 1974

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutty two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

1975 AFC Championship

(49,103)

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

December 24, 1977
(75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10
December 30, 1978
(48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

1978 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13

(50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Wild Card Game

San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
January 9, 1983
(53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Los Angeles 38, Pittsburgh 10
January 1, 1984
(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17
December 30, 1984
(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

Pittsburgh Steelers Playoff Summaries

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28
January 6, 1985
(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)
December 31, 1989
(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merril Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23
January 7, 1990
(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merril Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3
January 9, 1993
(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game

Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
January 8, 1994
(74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Championship

San Diego 17, Pittsburgh 13
January 15, 1995
(61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
January 6, 1996
(59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

1995 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 20, Indianapolis 16
January 14, 1996
(61,062)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

1996 AFC Divisional Playoff

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
January 3, 1998
(61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

1997 AFC Championship

(61,382)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10
January 20, 2002
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

2001 AFC Championship Game

New England 24, Pittsburgh 17

(64,704)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 36, Cleveland 33
January 5, 2003
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

(64,917)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

2005 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 31, Cincinnati 17
January 8, 2006
(65,870)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its' offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

2005 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Denver 17
Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

2007 AFC Wild Card Game

Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29
Jan. 5, 2008
Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

2010 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19
Jan. 23, 2011
Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

2011 AFC Wild Card Game

Denver 29, Pittsburgh 23 (OT)
Jan. 8, 2012
Sports Authority Field at Mile High (75,970)

DENVER — QB Tim Tebow and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play in overtime to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 29-23 in the AFC Wild Card Game. It was the fasted ending in NFL history for any overtime game.

The Steelers got off to a fast start, moving the football into Denver territory on their first two possessions. But they had to settle for two field goals. K Shaun Suisham connected on a 45-yarder to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, and with less than a minute remaining in the first quarter, Suisham connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 6-0.

But the Broncos would score 20 unanswered points. Tebow found WR Eddie Royal for a 30-yard touchdown to give the Broncos a 7-6 lead. Tebow then scored on an eight-yard run less than three minutes later to give the Broncos a 14-6 lead. K Matt Prater connected on two field goals of 20 and 28 yards before halftime to give the Broncos a 20-6 lead going into the break.

The Steelers though would mount a comeback. WR Mike Wallace scored on a one-yard run midway through the third quarter to cut the lead 20-13. Prater added a 35-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 23-13 lead but the Steelers answered with another Suisham field goal.

Trailing 23-16, the Steelers defense forced RB Willis McGahee to fumble, giving QB Ben Roethlisberger a short field. Roethlisberger found WR Jerricho Cotchery for a 31-yard touchdown to tie the game 23-23.

The Steelers had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Roethlisberger was sacked on two of the team's final three plays, forcing overtime. After Suisham's kickoff sailed through the uprights, the Broncos took over at their own 20-yard line. Tebow threw the touchdown to Thomas on the very next play.

Despite the loss, the Steelers held each Bronco running back to less than 100 yards rushing. The Steelers have not allowed a single running back to rush for more than 100 yards in 18-consecutive postseason games, the longest current streak in the NFL.

Roethlisberger became just the second player in team history to throw for more than 3,000 yards in the postseason.

Super Bowl IX
Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6
January 12, 1975
(80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X

Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII

Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV
Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980
(103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX
Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
January 28, 1996
(76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL
Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10
Feb. 5, 2006
Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Super Bowl XLIII
Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2.TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Super Bowl XLV
Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25
Feb. 6, 2011
Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing posession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.
